Sermon Series: Sticks and Stones Are Not the Problem

This is the second week of our series called "Sticks and Stones Are Not the Problem." The concept comes from the children's rhyme, "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me." This rhyme is a blatant lie. Words are often the most painful weapons we can use against each other. How many of us are carrying deep and hurtful wounds caused by someone's malicious words uttered years ago. This series is a reminder that our behavior matters and through Christ we are called to pay close attention to what comes out of our mouths as a leading indicator of what is in our hearts.

Today is our United Methodist Women's Sunday. Our ushers today in the 8:15 and 10:45 service will be members of the Joy Marie Circle. We are presenting Judy Brockman with a special recognition pin this morning in the 9:30 service. This pin is given to a person that we feel has made a difference in the life of our church. The last project of the Joy Marie circle this year is November 13th in the CORC, where we will be sorting shoe boxes for Samaritan's Purse. We invite anyone interested in circle to visit us, we usually meet the 3rd. Monday night in the CORC at 7:00 p.m. and you are under no obligation to join.

Operation Christmas Child - Shoe boxes are available at the Mission Center and FLC gym today. Shoebox collection November 13th-20th. For more information or to volunteer, contact Wendi Popoff at Wendi.popoff@yahoo.com or by phone at (704) 495-1671.

Congregational News

Congratulations to Matthew and Alicia Anderson on the birth of their son, Boone Michael, born October 19th. Boone weighed 7lbs 1oz. and was 22 inches long. The rose on the altar is in his honor.

Today we welcome Wally & Janis Mlynarski by transfer from Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic in Doylestown, PA.

October is Pastor Appreciation Month! - Clergy appreciation by a congregation is a demonstration of gratitude to God for our pastors. We invite you to express your personal gratitude for these shepherds of our church family through spoken words of thanks, notes or tokens of appreciation. Take time this month to show our leaders of Denver UMC how grateful we are for all they do!

A message from the DUMC Endowment Committee - Life insurance is a way to make a larger gift to DUMC than you might otherwise be able to afford. Consider naming DUMC as a beneficiary of part or all of any life insurance policy.

Pastor Steve will be out of the office next week attending a meeting of the LEAD Academy in SC. He will be on vacation Fri-Sun. Pastor Anita will be preaching next week's message.
